

Have the honor to invite you to the

International exchange seminar PREVENTION AND REHABILITATION OF SPORTS INJURIES 2016

Venue: Faculty of Kinesiology,
University of Zagreb,
the main sports hall

Time: February 28th, 2016.

Conference starts at: 9:00,

Registration starts at: 8:00

Target audience of the Exchange Seminar includes:

- physical conditioning coaches
- kinesiologists and physiotherapists
- sports doctors
- sports coaches
- physiatrists and orthopaedists
- school medicine and occupational medicine doctors
- other health professionals
- masters and students of kinesiology
- and other sports professionals

Lecturers

1. Rhodri Lloyd, PhD, Wales, United Kingdom

Currently senior professor and director of educational programme for Physical Conditioning Training, Rehabilitation and Massage at Metropolitan University in Cardiff. Member of United Kingdom Strength and Conditioning Association (UKSCA) and National Strength and Conditioning Association (NSCA) where he is in charge of programmes for youth training; Consultant for long-term athletic development in professional sports organizations including Irish Rugby League and British Tennis League.

2. Igor Borić, MD, PhD, Croatia

Affirmed expert in the field of musculoskeletal radiology at the Clinical Hospital Center Zagreb, Children's Hospital in Zagreb "Klaićeva", Clinical Hospital Center "Sisters of Charity" in Zagreb and Special Hospital St. Catherine; Assistant professor at the Department of Radiology, School of Medicine, University of Split; President of the Health Commission of the Croatian Association of Ice Hockey.

3. Tomislav Vlahović, MD, General surgeon - plastic surgeon, Croatia

Doctor at the Traumatology Hospital, KBC "Sisters of Charity" and long-standing doctor of the Croatian National Football Team.

4. Bojan Radanović, Senior physiotherapist, Croatia

Long-standing physiotherapist of the Croatian National Football Team.

5. Nenad Njaradi, BSc Sports Coach, Serbia

Topmost physical conditioning coach with long-time experience in elite handball; continuing associate of the Faculty of Kinesiology and Study Centre for Coach Education in Zagreb; currently working as a physical conditioning coach for Iranian National Handball Team.

6. Saša Bašćevan, MSc

Part-time lecturer at the Faculty of Kinesiology, University of Zagreb, physical conditioning coach, expert in the field of rehabilitation of sports injuries at the "Patela" Polyclinic.

7. Damir Hudetz, MD, Croatia

Orthopaedics specialist with extensive international experience in the field of sports and orthopaedic traumatology; Associate professor at the Faculty of Medicine, University in Osijek; Orthopaedics specialist at the Special Hospital St. Catherine.

8. Igor Jukić, PhD, Croatia

Founder and President of the Croatian Physical Conditioning Association; Full professor at the Faculty of Kinesiology in Zagreb and topmost physical conditioning coach in number of sports, mostly sport games such as basketball and football; long-standing coach of Ivica Olić and Mirko Filipović, and until recently, physical conditioning coach for Croatian National Football Team.

Registration fee: 300 kn/40 Euros
(students: 150 kn/ 20 Euros)

Important: Registration fee for the exchange seminar "Prevention and Rehabilitation of Sports Injuries" does not include participation at the Conference "Physical Conditioning 2016" and vice versa.

The registration fee can be paid at website www.epca-europe.com (internet banking or paypal), at the Conference venue or to the bank account of the of the European Physical Conditioning Association, Horvaćanski zavoj 15, 10000 Zagreb, number IBAN: HR6724840081106314795; SWIFT: RZBHHR2X "participation at the seminar 2016".

Additional information:

Faculty of Kinesiology, University of Zagreb,
Horvaćanski zavoj 15, 10000 Zagreb

Phone: +385 1 3658 645; +385 1 3658 602

Fax: +385 1 3025 602

E-mail: iro@kif.hr; epca.europe@gmail.com

Web: www.epca-europe.com

Conference schedule will be available before the beginning of the Conference